The U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center

Veterans Ambassador Program

HELP US PROTECT AND PRESERVE SOLDIERS' STORIES!

All U.S. Army Veterans' experiences are important. Our Soldiers' experiences are invaluable resources for educating future Soldiers, historians, researchers, and the American public. The U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center (USAHEC) is the Army's premier museum, archive, and research facility, and takes great pride in "Telling the Army's Story, One Soldier at a Time!"®

To fulfill our mission, the USAHEC needs volunteer Ambassadors to collect Soldier stories and represent the USAHEC.

What does a USAHEC Veteran Ambassador do?

- ◆ Collect oral histories from U.S. Army Veterans.
- ◆ Represent the USAHEC to Veterans all over the United States and the world.
- ◆ Assist with donations of historical materials from Veterans to include photos, journals, letters, and objects.

Mission: The USAHEC Ambassador Program is a strategic engagement to secure Veterans' stories about their service, enable the collection of historically significant artifacts and information, as well as educate public and private organizations about the USAHEC.

Vision: The USAHEC Ambassadors are recognized champions of the USAHEC who conduct Veteran engagements and support public outreach activities.

Who Qualifies to be a USAHEC Veteran Ambassador?

- ◆ Must be a "people person" capable of speaking as easily to crowds as to a single Veteran.
- ◆ Must be able to represent the USAHEC in a professional manner.
- ◆ Must be able to dedicate significant time and effort to the Ambassador Program mission.
- ◆ Must be enthusiastic about preserving and protecting the U.S. Army's rich history.
