THREAT ASSESSMENT

- IEDS, VBIEDS, and Suicide bombers are the enemy's most effective weapons – increasingly sophisticated
- Terrorists and Foreign Fighters (T&FF) are smaller in number but most lethal
- Local insurgents are primarily remnants of Saddam regime and Baathist Party. Not well organized but numerous
- Areas outside U.S. bases remain very dangerous
- Mortars, rockets, and small arms fire (SAF) are used sporadically
- Small unit attacks possible
- Stand and fight only in the West and Northwest
- Focus on Iraqi political/legal/police/military
- Abu Ghraib receives periodic indirect and SAF. No major attack since April 05. Last mortar attack 8 Nov

DETAINEE MOVEMENTS

CONAIR

- Three flights (50 detainees ea)
- Mission time: 8 - 14 hrs
- Advantages: Reduced force protection risks, reduced wear and tear on vehicle fleet
- Disadvantages: flight delays & cancellations, utilizes two MP BNs to support mission

OPERATION GREYHOUND

- Time: 10-14 hours; Distance: ~400 miles
- Three day mission / Bucca - Abu - Bucca
- Advantage: Guaranteed movement of a large # of detainees, one MP BN responsible for movement
- Disadvantage: Increased wear and tear on an aging vehicle fleet, increased force protection risk

OTHER TYPES OF RELEASES

•CCCI

•Central Criminal Court of Iraq (CCCI) – Iraqi legal system that tries detainees where physical evidence (i.e. weapons) is present and available for a possible prosecution. Convicted detainees are transferred to the Iraqi Justice System and to the Hard Site at Abu Ghraib. Detainees who are found "Not Guilty" or whose cases are "Dismissed" are released from US custody, upon approval from the DCG-DO.

•EXPEDITE D

•File review conducted by the Magistrates Cell at Abu Ghraib. If the detainees file, which is forwarded to Abu from the BIF/DIF, lacks sufficient evidence to retain, an expedited review is conducted and present to the DCG-DO for an Expedited Release, which would bypass the CRRB and CCCI process.

•COMPASSIONATE

•Release request submitted by the CSH to the DCG-DO due to the extremely poor health of a detainee. The release allows for the detainee to be medically ca

•SPECIAL RELEASE

•Release request that is usually furnished to the DCG-DO by an MSC. Many Special Release requests are submitted because the wrong person was captured by CF or the release of a particular detainee would benefit CFs in their attempt to negotiate with village or tribal leaders.
