

The exhibition is divided into five main sections:

Entry Experience: Watch the introductory multimedia show and explore a timeline of the development and evolution of the U.S. Army.

Joining Up and Leaving Home: Experience these first steps through the eyes of Soldiers and their loved ones.

Basic Combat Training: Try your hand at Soldiers' skills. Do you have what it takes?

The American Soldier in War and Peace: Explore the U.S. Army's story through the Soldiers who lived it. Journey from the Spanish-American War to the present.

From Soldier to Civilian: Feel the joys and sorrows of coming home. Honor our veterans. Share your story.

Changing Exhibition Space: Discover new Soldier stories and special topic rotating exhibits on return visits. Check our website usahec.org for details.

Exhibition Highlights

Don't miss:

Introductory multimedia show

Meet "Your" Soldier

Marksmanship

World War II Parachute Jump

Korean War Night Attack Experience

Vietnam Booby Traps and Tunnels Display

Closing film: Stories from the Heart

Kids will like:

Follow the Leader

World War I Tank Experience

World War II Parachute Jump

Body Armor Display

If you're short on time:

Enjoy the introductory multimedia show.

Choose one conflict or era to explore in The American Soldier in War and Peace

Watch the closing film: Stories from the Heart.

Come back to explore new stories:

Look for Soldier's Story Cases in The American Soldier in War and Peace. They will change on a regular basis to showcase different stories and artifacts from USAHEC's collections.

Plan Your Visit to
The Soldier Experience

Soldier Experience Gallery Guide

-  Multimedia Presentation
-  Meet "Your" Soldier
-  Timeline
-  Joining Up and Leaving Home
-  Basic Combat Training
-  The American Soldier in War and Peace
-  From Soldier to Civilian
-  Soldier Experience Theater
-  Changing Exhibition Space
-  Information Desk
-  Exits

www.usahec.org

U.S. Army Heritage and Education Center
 950 Soldiers Drive
 Carlisle, PA 17013-5021
 Telephone (717) 245-3972